

WESTERLY MAN IS 87

Charles B. Lawton Receives Callers on Birthday—Action For Trespass and Ejectment Brought—Mrs. Frank Baldi Returning to New York, Finds Apartment Robbed—State C. E. Convention Plans.

One now writ entered in the Third District court at the regular session held Friday by Judge Oliver H. Williams presiding. This is an action of trespass and ejectment. Henry Martin vs. Lillian Vesta Gibeau and Thomas J. Gibeau. The plaintiff is suing for the possession of the General Stanton farm, situated in Charlestown.

The case of Peter Lane vs. Annie Broadfoot et al. was continued for one week. Attorney Ledwidge, for the defendant, announced that settlement was pending and that the case would be discontinued.

Returning to New York city after being present at the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Frank Baldi, who was held in Westbury, Miss Florence Paltenshi, according to a letter received in Westbury Friday afternoon, found that during her absence her apartment at West 48th street had been entered and many articles of value stolen. An effort to find the guilty parties has been of no avail.

Charles B. Lawton, who resides at 12 Liberty street, greeted many of his friends Friday who called to extend congratulations on his 87th birthday. When Mr. Lawton was visited by a newspaperman he referred to a reminiscence note to his youth and said he remembered the first whipping he ever had. When asked for what he was punished, he replied that it was for crawling under the dining room table and letting down the seat, up setting the dishes.

Mr. Lawton has lived in Westbury for twenty-five years. Up to a few weeks ago he was in good health, but for the past few days is recovering from an attack of the grip. He was born in South Kingston, the son of Samuel P. and Esther E. Lawton. He is the second child and the first son in a family of 14. On coming to Westbury he worked in the old stone mill in Main street, following which he was employed in the mill of O. M. Stillman in Stillmanville, subsequently working for C. B. Cottrell and Sons company on Mechanic street.

Mr. Lawton married Sarah N. Brightman in Norwalk, Conn. June 29, 1856. Mrs. Lawton died in 1882.

A full programme has been arranged for the state convention of Christian Endeavor which will be held in the Pawcatuck Seventh-Day Baptist church on Main street Monday. The delegates, who will come to Westbury from various sections of the state, will be met at the New Haven station by representatives of the local union. Addressed by Rev. H. C. Van Horn, its president. In honor of the visitors it is expected that several of the stores will be decorated.

There will be three sessions while the convention is in progress here, namely, afternoon and evening. The feature of the morning session will be an address by Secretary A. J. Shurtleff on Some Phases of Christian Endeavor. The subject of the afternoon session, to be discussed by Mrs. G. F. Rooker, president of the Rhode Island W. C. T. U., is the reports of officers will be read and the awarding of the state banner made. Rev. H. A. Atkinson will give an address at 3:45 o'clock of the Church Serving His Community. A banquet will be served at 5:30 p. m.

In the evening there will be two addresses, one by Rev. F. E. Clark, D. D.

A HEAVY BURDEN

A Bad Back Makes Life Miserable For Many Norwich People.

A bad back is a heavy burden.

A burden at night when bedtime comes.

Just as bothersome in the morning.

Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it?

Know they are for kidney backache—and for some kidney ills?

If you don't, some Norwich people do.

Read a case of it:

John Connell, 33 Forest St., Norwich says: "I strained my back and my kidneys were affected. Nothing helped me until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at N. D. Sewin & Son's Drug Store. They acted like a charm and I have had no kidney trouble since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Connell had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

DO YOU DANCE?

If you say no, we wish to send you instructions for the modern dances. These instructions are in booklet form by Vernon Castle and G. Hepburn Wilson. We will gladly send or give you one free of charge.

Everybody should dance—the greater percentage is now dancing, and the smaller percentage that is not—is terribly lonesome.

The best way to procure your music for dancing is through the COLUMBIA GRAFANOLA and the VICTROLA. The fact that G. Hepburn Wilson and Vernon Castle supervise the making of the dance records should guarantee perfect reproduction.

WE ARE TALKING MACHINE SPECIALISTS WITH LARGE STOCKS OF THE LEADING INSTRUMENTS ON THE MARKET. WE CAN SUPPLY YOU WITH ANY STANDARD TALKING MACHINE MANUFACTURED AND OUR SERVICE CANNOT BE EQUALLED.

We carry complete stocks of Records and we have four specially constructed sound-proof booths in which you can hear selections without interruption or delay. One entire floor devoted to talking machine patrons. Ask about our Special Record Proposition.

$1 per week for any outfit

And don't forget, if you should wish to hear Caruso, Melba, Alma Gluck, Kreisler, Elman, or any of the real artists, that they make records only for the Victrola.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Bank Examiners Order Savings Bank to Call in $12,000 Loan—Death of Nelson Towne—Miss Lohse's Funeral.

Monday being Washington's birthday the schools will be closed. In most of the schools Friday afternoon was devoted to exercises concerning Washington.

Business Men's Social. The monthly social of the Stafford Business Men's association was held at the club rooms last evening. Whist and dancing were the principal features of a very pleasant evening.

Rev. John Winthrop Ballantine of West Stafford has been spending a few days with Rev. George A. Grant of Westbury, a former pastor of the local Methodist church.

Funeral of Miss Lohse. The funeral of Miss Hazel Lohse took place at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Lohse, on Village Hill, Thursday afternoon. Rev. W. P. Buck officiated and burial was in the Springs cemetery.

William Williams of West Stafford has been spending the week in North Amherst, Mass.

Miss Margaret Ballantine has been made chairman of the book purchasing committee at the Stafford public library.

Must Call in $12,000 Loan. The state bank examiners have ordered the Stafford Savings bank to call in the loan of $12,000 on which the town has been paying interest for several years. The bill was incurred several years ago when the schoolhouse was built in the Second district. When the town adopted the consolidated system of school management it assumed the payment of interest on this indebtedness, although it has never been legalized by a direct vote of the town. The selectmen have called a town meeting to discuss the matter next Saturday afternoon at 1:30.

Death of Nelson Towne. Nelson Towne, 59, died of pneumonia at his home on Westford avenue
